

The Old Delta Family?

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

DELTA EXECS GAIN AS AIRLINE LOSES

ATLANTA (May 2, 2009) – Delta Air Lines chief executive Richard Anderson received a compensation package worth $17.4 million last year, while the company reported an $8.9 billion annual loss. ... Ed Bastian, Delta’s president and chief executive of its Northwest operations, received a package worth $10.8 million last year ...

2006 Compensation for OLD Delta Family

Gerald Grinstein – Chief Executive Officer .....	$343,402
James M. Whitehurst – Chief Operating Officer .....	$417,370
Edward H. Bastian – Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer .....	$443,369
Glen W. Hauenstein – Executive VP, Network Planning & Revenue Mgt .....	$388,882
Joseph C. Kolshak – Executive Vice President, Operations.....	$386,675
Paul G. Matsen – Former Executive VP and Chief Marketing Officer.....	$549,894

2007 Compensation for NEW Delta Family

Richard H. Anderson – Chief Executive Officer .....	$11,296,759
Edward H. Bastian – President and Chief Financial Officer.....	$10,298,340
Michael H. Campbell – Executive VP, HR, Labor & Communications .....	$6,380,261
Glen W. Hauenstein – Executive VP, Network Planning & Revenue Mgt .....	$7,333,300
Lee A. Macenczak – Executive Vice President, Sales and Marketing.....	$5,939,836
Gerald Grinstein – Retired Chief Executive Officer .....	$357,941

“It is very important for me to have a contract. I want representation that has my best interests at heart. When I look at our executive team, I believe their top priority is to shareholders... and their own pockets.”

—Simone Cerasa, 2 years

DeltaAFA Representation

Opportunity. Unity. Respect.