

Opportunity.

Flight Attendants at Delta have an historic chance to secure our futures and advance our profession.

With the merger of Delta and Northwest, the combined flight attendant workforce will be among the largest in the world.

Unity.

Together, we have the power to improve our pay, benefits and working conditions. Divided, we are at the mercy of the executives in the boardrooms.

Executives at the new Delta want to keep us divided because they don't want us to gain an equal footing with management. They fear that we will unite in one powerful voice for flight attendants.

Respect.

We deserve to be treated with dignity because our work is critical to the success of our airline. Flight attendants are on the front lines – our service to passengers' safety and comfort is Delta's most visible product.

To earn the respect that we deserve, we must stand up and be counted, and speak with one strong voice. Together, we can make a difference in our working lives.
